2023 NATIONAL INDIGENOUS DIABETES CONFERENCE

A DIABETES JOURNEY: WORKING TOGETHER TOWARDS WELLNESS

NOVEMBER 21 - 23, 2023

RIVER CREE RESORT & CASINO ENOCH, AB

FOR MORE INFORMATION: WWW.NADA.CA

TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO SHOWCASE YOUR ORGANIZATION AT THE NATIONAL INDIGENOUS DIABETES CONFERENCE OF THE YEAR!

The 11th National Indigenous Diabetes Conference aims to bring together lived experienced individuals, Aboriginal Diabetes Initiative Workers, Indigenous front-line workers, leadership, Community Diabetes Prevention Workers, diabetes educators, health managers, dietitians, nutritionists, nurses, researchers, industry, and government representatives to learn about and share practices in diabetes prevention and self-management among Indigenous Peoples in Canada. The conference will serve as a platform to exchange knowledge, discuss innovative strategies, and explore culturally appropriate solutions for diabetes prevention and management within Indigenous communities.

The conference is designed to increase delegates' knowledge, skill and awareness on healthy lifestyles on diabetes prevention and self-management by incorporating traditional teachings and practices for wholistic wellness. Interactive sessions and community tours will be arranged to enhance delegate experiences and opportunities for networking. The agenda will include workshops, oral presentations, field trips, plenary sessions and keynotes.

With your support the 2023 National Indigenous Diabetes Conference will benefit many diabetes front-line workers, community representatives and individuals living with diabetes working for positive change through wholistic health, wellness awareness and education.

By sponsoring the conference you will contribute to healthier communities across the country. It will also bring opportunities to bring attention to your organization, company or product; enhance community relations; and demonstrate your commitment to Indigenous health and wellness, and reconciliation.
